HON. SELON H. CASE,
 The Next Senator from the Second District.

HON. SHERMAN P. CODY,

Independent Candidate for the Legislature, Second District.

Hon. Sherman P. Cody, candidate for re-election to the Legislature on the Independent gold standard Democracy ticket, from the Second senatorial district, was a member of the last General Assembly and has been a resident of the Twelfth ward for the last twenty years. He is so well known to the residents of the Tenth and Twelfth wards, which comprise his district, that an extended biography is unnecessary. His record in the last Legislature entitles him to re-election, and his ability, energy and honesty insure the voters of his district a satisfactory representative, if he is returned.

Mr. Cody is 39 years of age, having been born in Du Page County, Illinois, and being the son of ex-Judge Hiram H. Cody, for many years circuit judge in the district lying contiguous to Cook County. Sherman's taste inclined to a business life, and before he was 20 years old he was actively engaged in the wholesale drug business, where, by diligence and ability, he rose from the foundation to one of the most responsible positions in perhaps the largest drug house in Chicago, and was associated with the establishment until he became the western representative of an eastern perfume house, and for it, supplied the retail drug trade of this city. This experience has made him personally acquainted not only with nearly every retail druggist in the county, but also with their needs, and, always having been an earnest friend and champion, he has their hearty support in the present campaign regardless of party affiliations.

In the last Legislature, Mr. Cody's voice and vote will be found to have been upon the right side of every measure representing the best interests of his district, as well as Chicago and Cook County.

Obedient to the desire of the many old soldiers who were anxious that the bill placing the Lincoln monument in the hands of the State, thereby not only abolishing the pernicious practice of charging a fee of admission, but guaranteeing the proper care and preservation of this historic relic, should become a law, Mr. Cody labored diligently before and during the session towards this end, and his efforts contributed largely to the success of this bill, as well as to the one making an appropriation for the erection of monuments at Chickamauga.

The druggists of Chicago and all who pay tribute to the telephone company, will remember his energetic fight for the bill introduced by him, reducing the annual charge for telephone service throughout this city to $72, and though it was impossible to succeed in passing this bill, its defeat cannot be laid at Mr. Cody's door.

The county and civil service bills also received Mr. Cody's support, and he introduced and secured the passage of the bill drawn by Mr. John P. Wilson, which enabled the Lewis Institute, of such vast importance to the entire city, and particularly to the West division, to incorporate.

At the conclusion of the special session Mr. Cody was appointed on a committee of nine to investigate the question of child labor and report at the coming session, to the end that much needed reform in that direction may be accomplished. He has given much time and work to this subject, and is anxious to secure proper legislation in this behalf.

Mr. Cody was also an advocate of the proposed constitutional convention, and, in fact, his entire record shows him to have been a faithful, efficient, painstaking, and honest representative of his constituency as well as of the entire people of the State. As he has proved his ability and willingness to properly represent his district it is not surprising that his friends of all parties are seeking his election at this time when public servants of unquestioned character are most needed.

Mr. Cody stands with the sound money element of his party, believing that no patriotic citizen can advocate the Popocratic principles of repudiation and national honor.

On election day, Nov. 3, 1896, Mr. Cody's name will be found on the Independent Gold Standard Democratic ticket, and by placing a cross in the square before his name you will cast three votes for a man who, if elected, will continue to serve his constituents faithfully in the future as he has ever done in the past.

As the political complexion of the Second District assures the election of two Republicans without doubt, and as only two have been nominated, every Republican who prefers that the third representative shall be one who stands for American honor and sound money can safely vote three votes for Sherman P. Cody. The election of a United States Senator by the next General Assembly makes it important that the free silver Democracy should not hold the balance of power.

The Reward of Experience.
 Young Lawyer—Why do you take that case when there's nothing in it?
 Old Lawyer—Nothing in it? Blunt paid me a big retainer and I'm charging him $50 a day during the trial.—Detroit Free Press.

Different Then.
 Mrs. Kidd—There, now, thank goodness! I've sung the baby to sleep.

Stranded.
 "I wonder," said the soubrette, "if we will be able to fly?"
 "We are able to fly right now," said the pessimistic manager, "but the question is whether we can take our baggage along."—Cincinnati Enquirer.
